

About the Richmond Hill Heritage Centre

“Discover the Past and the Present”

The Richmond Hill Heritage Centre is a unique facility that highlights the heritage identity, visibility and activities in the community. Through exhibiting and interpretation of its collection, by presenting educational programs, workshops, and special events there is something for everyone. Located in picturesque Amos Wright Park, the Heritage Centre is an 1840's Regency style cottage, architecturally restored to reflect this historical period. The Centre offers three galleries, a discovery room and a meeting room.

When planning your group visit to the Heritage Centre, don't forget your picnic lunch and take the opportunity to stroll through Amos Wright Park. The beautiful gardens include herbs, heritage plants and of course, roses, a flower of great historical significance for Richmond Hill.
